Assessing Our Theology Ephesians 3:14-21

Certainly, our theology should give us an accurate view of God; but if it does not also drive us to our knees in prayer and humility, then that theology is not _____ Discussion 1. If my understanding of God does not motivate me to pray, what should I do about that? As a Christ follower, why does the quality of my prayer life matter?

For the Christ follower, our theology should cause us to open our hearts and minds to the formative work of God's Spirit in us, drawing us more and more into _____ Discussion 2. What do you think it means to abide in Christ or for Christ to abide in you? How do you know if that is happening or not?

Good theology is so much more than just knowledge; it should be leading us to an ever-deepening understanding of the full dimensions of _____ Discussion 3. What are some of the consequences of teaching a "right" theology but being devoid of God's love? Can you point to evidence of that problem in our current culture?

Right theology drives us to stop and give glory to God, acknowledging His _____ in the church, in Christ, and at work within all of us as believers.

Discussion 4. To you, what exactly does it mean to "give glory to God", i.e., how would you describe it to a 6-year-old? Do you think it is possible to have an accurate view of God and NOT give Him glory? Why or why not?
